the ones we love.

We are born at a given moment, in a given place, and like vintage years of wine, we have the qualities of the year and of the season in which we are born.

Astrology does not lay claim to anything more.

EPICURE

1953, the year in which the Seniors were born, is referred to by the Chinese-Oriental Fortune Calendar as the Year of the Snake.

People born in the Year of the Snake are deep. They speak little, possess great wisdom. They never have to worry about money; they are financially fortunate. Snake people are often quite vain, selfish, and a bit stingy. Yet they have tremendous sympathy for others and try to help those less fortunate. Snake people tend to overdo, since they have doubts about other people's judgment and prefer to rely on themselves. They are determined in whatever they do. They hate to fail. Although calm on the surface, they are intense and passionate. Snake people are usually good-looking and often fickle.
